

TIM TALK

"All I Really Need to Know I Learned in Mayberry"

In his book, All I Really Needed to Know I Learned in Kindergarten, Robert Fulghum tells of the life lessons he learned. Even though the stories in his book span an entire lifetime; the basics of those lessons learned, he was taught, as he says: "in the sandpile at Sunday School." From sharing everything and playing fair to eating warm cookies with cold milk and flushing Fulghum says "everything you need to know is in there somewhere. The Golden Rule and love and basic sanitation..."

...Think what a better world it would be if we all — the whole world — had cookies and milk about three o'clock every afternoon and then lay down with our blankies for a nap."

After almost nine years of watching episodes of the Andy Griffith Show every Sunday night for church I, like Fulghum, have learned many life lessons; not from kindergarten, but from characters like Barney Fife, Opie Taylor, Helen Crump, Gomer Pyle, Floyd Lawson, Aunt Bee, Otis Campbell and Andy Taylor. Some of those lessons learned come from the zaniest of mishaps in Mayberry, like the time Ernest T. Bass threw rocks through the windows of the court house, instead of hauling him off to jail, Andy instead invested himself into transforming Ernest into a well-mannered and respected citizen (it worked for a little bit, if I recall correctly). Or how about the time Opie became so critical of his Aunt Bee's fishing abilities that Andy took it upon himself to teach his son to see the good in everyone.

These, and many other of the zany antics of the characters of Mayberry have taught me much about how to live my life today. Wouldn't it be great if we could all step back into time and refamiliarize ourselves with some of our favorite episodes of The Andy Griffith Show in order to see life anew. Rascal Flatts may have captured it best in his song about missing Mayberry:

*"Sometimes I can hear this old earth shouting
Through the trees as the wind blows
That's when I climb up here on this mountain
To look through God's window."*

Whether if we learned it in kindergarten, Sunday School, or Mayberry does not matter; what matters is how are we living out the Gospel message today. How are we, like Andy Taylor, being Christ-like? If Andy could put up with a bumbling deputy like Barney Fife, just think of how we could benefit from just watching Andy in action; after all, how many bumbling idiots do we have to put up with on a regular basis? In many of the Mayberry episodes Sheriff Andy Taylor is the hero; and like Christ, shows us the more excellent way to live life.

During the month of January while Mayberry Church is on winter hiatus, Mayberry is going prime time. My Winter Sermon Series (see the preaching and sermon schedule below) is entitled: "All I Really Needed to Know I Learned in Mayberry. For the next several weeks we will be visiting clips of some my favorite episodes to learn how we too might become more Christ-like in how we deal with the Barney Fife's and Ernest T. Bass' of our day and era. I hope you will join me in this adventure as; borrowing from Rascal Flatts, "look through God's window."

In the words of the Apostle Paul:

"Love from the center of who you are. Don't Fake It!" (Romans 12:9)

AT HOME WITH GOD

Of all persons, the Christian should be best prepared for whatever the New Year brings...in Christ he has disposed of a thousand enemies that other men must face alone and unprepared. He can face his tomorrow cheerful and unafraid because yesterday he turned his feet into the ways of peace and today he lives in God. The man who has made God his dwelling place will always have a safe habitation.

- A. W. Tozer

CHRISTIAN SYMBOL*HOLLY

Holly was first used by pagans to decorate for the festival of Saturnalia. When Christians began celebrating Christmas in honor of Christ, they adapted that decorating practice to reflect Jesus' life and death. Holly's pointed leaves symbolize the crown of thorns and its red berries symbolize Christ's blood shed on the cross. Because holly thrives and its berries retain their brilliance even in harsh winter conditions, non-Christians saw it as a symbol of eternity- which is fitting for Christians as well.

THE LIVING PRESENT

There are two ways of remembering. One is to make an excursion from the living present back into the dead past. The other way is to summon the dead past back into the living present.

When Jesus said, "Do this in remembrance of me," (1 Corinthians 11:24), he was not prescribing a periodic slug of nostalgia.

"STEP" INTO THE NEW YEAR

Make this craft to remember God's many blessings.

What you need:

- Small stones
- Permanent markers
- Foil pan and cooking spray
- Drop cloth
- Gloves
- Quick-set concrete (and adult help)
- Bucket and paint stirrer

What you do:

1. After reflecting on the past year, use markers to decorate stones with memorable words, dates and drawings.
2. Spray pan with cooking spray. Set pan outside on a drop cloth.
3. Wearing gloves, mix concrete in a bucket, according to instructions.
4. Pour concrete into pan. Smooth top with paint stirrer.
5. Press in stones, handprints and other decorations.
6. Let dry completely. Remove from pan.
7. Place the stepping-stone outside as a reminder of God's continued goodness.

Danny and I would like to send our thanks and appreciation to everyone for the baby shower that was thrown for us. We feel blessed and grateful to be in such a caring church family.

Thanks,
Kelly and Danny Castellow

Thank you to everyone for the cards, food, phone calls, visits, prayers and acts of kindness shown to me during the time of my surgery and recovery.

LOVE IN ACTION

Martin Luther King, Jr., whose life and legacy we honor this month, spoke often about the power of love. In fact, he equated the practice of nonviolence with "absolute commitment to the way of love."

Love, declared the minister and activist, "Is the only force capable of transforming an enemy into a friend." And, he said, anyone who's "devoid of the power to love" is "devoid of the power to forgive."

King distinguished between true love and "empty sentimentalism," however. He taught – and showed – that love is "the active outpouring of one's whole being into the being of another."

Jesus' sacrifice on the cross is the ultimate "active outpouring" of love, and we can choose to follow his example daily.

"Because of Calvary I'm free to choose," writes Max Lucado in When God Whispers Your Name, "No occasion justifies hatred; no injustice warrants bitterness. I choose love. Today I will love God and what God loves."

*Merry Christmas 2018

Dear Friends,

It's Christmas time again. It is the happiest part of the year because we celebrate the birthday of the greatest gift God has given to prove His love for us. His name is Jesus. "God so loved the world that He gave his only begotten Son that whoever believes in Him will not perish, but have everlasting life." (John 3:16) We want to share this message to all the world. That is why General Board of Global Ministries is sending missionaries all around the globe. And yes, we are in Cambodia through the Street Children Ministry. The Street Children in Cambodia, together with their families have been enjoying the blessings of knowing Christ and had better life towards more abundant life. Jesus said, "I came that they may have life and have it more abundantly. (John 10:10). These children, youth and their families wish to give back the love that you are sending by bringing you their best greetings for a Very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Jesus came to bring good news to the poor, give sight to the blind, mend the broken hearted, set the captives free and proclaim the reign of God. Yes, let us continue to bring this good news to the underprivileged children, HIV/AIDS patients, and the sick people of Cambodia, the poor who are receiving blessings through Methodist Ministry of Cambodia (MMC). They are praising God together through their songs and dances in celebration for the birthday of Jesus. God's grace through your love has sustained sufficiently.

We are now preparing for this great day, the annual celebration of Christmas. Everyone is enthusiastic as seen in their eagerness to participate and cooperate with the staff not only in the preparation but also visiting the sick as they support one another.

We, together with the staff are doing our best effort, time and energy to make every activity become a success. Activities like educational guided tours, Sunday school, visiting the orphanages and celebrating national festivities. This is such a great privilege to be instruments to bring the Good News to these poor and marginalized children and their parents. It is a joy to watch them grow into mature and faithful Christians. They become responsible family members and citizens as they study and adopt social skills, vocational skills that guide them towards their goal in life. This is our ministry.

Thank you so much! You are indeed a blessing to these poor children and their families. You have become answers to their prayers. Miracles have happened in their lives. May God's blessings be multiplied as God showers his blessings upon you. May these blessings flow from God's children to all the people in need.

Thank you for your prayers and love. Our ministry could have not been possible without you.

To show their love and gratefulness, we attaching Christmas cards that have been sketched by our children. Have the most blessed Christmas and Prosperous New Year!!!

A WELL BALANCED CHURCH

The owner of a new puppy got a good laugh when the little dog, out for a walk, had an itch. The trouble was that the itchy spot was accessible only to a hind leg. So, while still walking, the pup tried to scratch and tumbled over, rolling a couple of times before coming to rest.

In several places throughout Scripture, the apostle Paul writes about the church as the body of Christ, and of the importance of each member. Just as the dog needed each leg to stay balanced while walking, so the church needs all the different God-given gifts of its members: preachers and teachers, friendly visitors, generous givers, musicians and singers, wise parents and imaginative children, people to produce and distribute meals, newsletters, lesson materials, and on and on.

When we start thinking that some part of Christ's body isn't necessary, we risk taking quite a tumble!
