

The Oakletter, Feb. 15, 2026

The graphic above references Psalm 51, long associated with Ash Wednesday, the start of Lent.

Lent starts next Wednesday, Feb. 18, and it's a busy season for us. Before we get to the schedule, please let me emphasize why we celebrate Lent.

Lent is a time for us to examine our relationship with God and to cast out anything that we find standing in the way of that relationship. Some do this by giving up something for Lent, which is one option; another option is taking up something for Lent, i.e., adopting a discipline or spiritual practice such as fasting or spending additional time praying or reading scripture. Just remember that anything we give up is secret – it's our secret devotion to God. If you give something up or even take something up, don't tell anyone. Remember, however, that Sunday is a feast day, and if you give something up, you can have it on Sunday, since it's a day with the Lord.

Okay here's the schedule:

Sunday's Gospel, Matthew 17:1-9

After six days Jesus took with him Peter, James and John the brother of James, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. There he was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and his clothes became as white as the light. Just then there appeared before them Moses and Elijah, talking with Jesus. Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you wish, I will put up three shelters – one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah."

While he was still speaking, a bright cloud covered them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased. Listen to him!"

When the disciples heard this, they fell facedown to the ground, terrified. But Jesus came and touched them. "Get up," he said. "Don't be afraid." When they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus. As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus instructed them, "Don't tell anyone what you have seen, until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."
